

THE AROUSE OF THE MASSES. GREAT RATIFICATION CONVENTION OF INDIANA.

The scene upon the ground beggars description, and we shall make no attempt to describe it. The numbers present were variously estimated from twenty to 30,000; but the most prevalent opinion among those with whom we conversed, and who were situated so as to have a survey of the mighty multitude, was, that were 25,000 on the ground. It was, as was well remarked by one of the speakers, a vast sea of human beings, all animated alike with an ardent attachment to the glorious principles of our Constitution—which are identical with those of the Whig party—and determined to "do or die" in their support and triumphant vindication.

It was a proud, a glorious day, and a sure precursor of the signal success of the Whigs in August and November. With perfect confidence, we assure our friends abroad, that Indiana will be—nay, is redeemed.

The Convention was addressed by the Hon. Henry Lane, Horace P. Riddle, Esq., and the Hon. S. W. Parker. A series of admirable resolutions were adopted, approving of Mr. Clay's letter on Annexation of Texas, and the leading measures of the Whig party.

WHIG MASS MEETING AT WEST CHESTER.—Philadelphia, June 7th.—P. M. The response given to the nominations of the Baltimore Conventions yesterday at Westchester, was one of the most gratifying character ever witnessed. The number of Whigs is believed to have been less than 10,000 while near 2,000 ladies graced the meeting with their presence. It was a glorious gathering, and one which West Chester will ever remember with pride.

THE Whig State Convention of Massachusetts has nominated the present incumbents, Gov. George N. Briggs and Lieut. Gov. John Reed, for re-election.

SENATOR BENTON.

The combination which has for some time been forming the various tails of the "democracy," to break down Mr. Senator Benton, seems to be daily gathering strength. The means which are taken to effect his political overthrow and to ostracize him from his party, are formed much of the same material that secured the disfigurement of Mr. Van Buren, and are strikingly illustrative of the selfishness of the modern democratic principle.

The Washington Correspondent of the Boston Courier remarks, that the veto on the Texas question in the House, is symbolic of the growing aversion to Benton amid the Democratic ranks. It is said to have been intended as such a demonstration. Evidently, this and other indications of hostility, have animated the zeal of his opponents. Mr. Calhoun's organ, the Spectator, late so passive under the attacks of the Bentonians, is now furiously assailing. We are to believe that the friends of the Nullifier think the present a favorable opportunity "to feed fat the ancient grudge they bear" to the Western leader of Democracy. Mr. Calhoun himself loves better to return, than to forgive an injury, as he is much more vindictive than magnanimous.

The Aurora here, comes down furiously upon the whilom champion of the democracy.

Mr. Benton has committed an error (says the Aurora) that cannot be easily atoned for, by his reckless, headlong, mule like opposition to the very measure upon which the great democratic party expect to come into power in the rapidly approaching contest. He has furnished our able though reckless enemy, with ammunition to batter down the republican fortress with which the great battle is to be fought. He has struck a deadly blow at the very interest it was his first and highest duty to foster and protect.—Express.

ADJOURNMENT.

Congress adjourned on the 17th inst. The nation rejoices. From the commencement of the session nothing good was expected from the acts of the House of Representatives.—They have done as much mischief as lay in their power. Never was there a more shameful violation of the laws and constitution than was perpetrated in the admission of the general ticket members. The Loco majority in the House would have repealed the Tariff if they dared to have done so. At least two thirds of the time of this body has been devoted to making buncombe speeches upon buncombe resolutions upon which no legislative action was proposed. The Representative Hall has been converted into an arena of gladation, in the course of which members have indulged in the most disgraceful scenes of rowdiness and personal abuse ever enacted in a legislative assembly. In these infamous proceedings we do not recollect a single instance where the censure did not chiefly attach to the Loco Co. members. Down to the very last day of the session the Locos neglected the business of the nation in setting political clap traps to spring upon the whigs. A vast amount of business was crowded down to the close of the session, and in the hurry and confusion multitudes of important bills of a public and private character have been lost.

But the Senate we rejoice to say have been prompt in the discharge of their duties.—When all else was faithless, this noble body of men have been faithful to themselves and their country, in the rejection of the infamous Texas treaty, and the corrupt nominations of John Tyler, they crowned themselves with unfading laurels. Honor to the Whig Senate. They have saved the nation. They have preserved the Tariff indirectly.

Whigs at Alexandria, D. C., to the amount of 7 or 8000 held a meeting a few days since. Enthusiastic addresses were made by several gentlemen of distinction and among others Mr. Botts and Mr. Collamer of Vermont. Everywhere meetings are being held through the country. The Whig fires burn bright and steady.

Latest from Mexico.—It may not be recollected by all our readers that John Tyler, about the time we think, that he persecuted the Texas Treaty to the Senate, sent Col. Thompson to Mexico to procure the consent of that country. The mission has failed of its object. The Mexicans are loud in their denunciations against the treaty. Fourteen thousand troops had been assembled at Vera Cruz, and large military stores were arriving there. It was rumored however at Washington since the adjournment of Congress that Mexico for a consideration, would give up her title to Texas and that John Tyler would call Congress together soon to act upon the subject. A messenger has arrived, but the above rumor was believed to be false and the contrary true.

ADDISON COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Meeting of the board of managers.

In pursuance of a call made by the President, the board of managers convened at the Vermont Hotel, June 13, 1844. Appointed L. D. Gregory Sec. Protom. Voted that the Fair be held at Middlebury, on the first day of Oct. next.

Adopted the following rules and regulations in addition to those adopted at a preceding meeting.

REGULATIONS OF THE FAIR.

I. A clerk shall be appointed by the board of managers who shall occupy a convenient stand near the place of exhibition, who shall make entries of all animals and other property offered for exhibition particularly specifying the same with the number of its entry, and deliver out to the owner of the animals or articles so entered, a card containing the number only, of such entry which card shall be affixed to the article or articles so entered, or in the case of animals, the card may be affixed either to the animal or pin in such a manner as to be legible to the examining Committee.

II. No animals or other property entered for premium shall be removed from their pens or their respective places until 4 o'clock P. M., unless by permission of a member of the committee of arrangement.

III. Applicants for premiums on animals will be prepared with written statements, accurately detailing the age, and method of feeding, and may be required to make oath to the same, which statements shall be delivered to the desk on entering the animals.

IV. All animals or other property entered for premiums should be entered and in the respective places before 10 o'clock A. M. on the day of the Fair, and no spectators will be allowed to be present during the examination of the viewing committee unless requested by said committee.

V. All the viewing committees will enter upon their respective duties at 11 o'clock, and award all premiums in writing signed by the members thereof giving their assent to the same.

VI. Premiums on all property entered except crops and farms shall be awarded and published on the day of the Fair at 4 P. M.

VII. All persons intending to compete for premiums on animals should give notice to the Secretary or a manager in writing on or before the 22d day of September next in order that the necessary accommodations shall be made for them.

VIII. Competitors for premiums on field crops shall lodge with the Secretary a specification containing the necessary details at least ten days before the annual meeting on the first Wednesday of Jan., and the premiums on field crops and farms shall be awarded on the day of the annual meeting.

The following committee were appointed to award premiums.

Mr. Editor,—

Many of our Loco Focos in this State feel disposed to censure the doings of the late Loco Convention at Baltimore, on the ground of their not obeying their instructions and nominating Mr. Van Buren. It is well known, that many states, that never did, nor never will, give Mr. Van Buren an electoral vote, had delegates in that convention, instructed to support Mr. Van Buren for President. But after the convention met and comparing notes from all the states represented, and finding that Mr. Van Buren had not been elected by the people in 1836 had the counties of Allegheny and Lancaster in Pennsylvania given the same vote in 1836, having no regular nominated candidate, and being beaten in 1840 by 145,000 majority by General Harrison, that Convention could come to no other conclusion, in case Mr. Van Buren was nominated, but he must be beaten. They, therefore, many of them, in order to obey their instructions and vote for Mr. Van Buren, first voted for the two third rule, in order that he might receive the vote necessary for a nomination. They then found that no one of their trained colts could obtain the nomination under that rule, they put a new pony on the track, and such an one as no one cared whether he even beat or not, so far as men were concerned, leaving it for the several states to run whom they pleased and if possible carry the election into the House of Representatives, where they have a much better chance, than with the people.
